

UPCOMING LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

How to stay connected to help you achieve collective impact

1. BIG PICTURE APPROACH INSTITUTE

This training event provides specifics on how to create the five conditions of collective impact through clear, sequenced steps – from partnership creation, community engagement and goal setting right on through to problem analysis, intervention design, implementation, evaluation and improvement. Participants will learn how to take a Big Picture Approach to tackle a range of underlying issues in their communities, and focus on implementing the nuts and bolts of a collective impact approach.

Achieving Collective Impact: How Partnerships Change Community Outcomes

March 4-6, 2014
Silver Spring Civic Center
Silver Spring, Md.

2. READY BY 21 NATIONAL MEETING

The meeting, taking place April 22-24th in Northern Kentucky, presents a once-a-year opportunity to meet with the broad spectrum of people carrying out collective impact strategies across the country to share ideas, successes and key resources. Details are online at www.readyby21.org/nationalmeeting.

3. NEW TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE COHORT

The Forum is inviting communities to apply to join a new technical assistance cohort designed to help you build or strengthen a new leadership council for your cradle-to-career collective impact effort. This 90-day learning community will help local partnerships gather information to make informed decisions about the ideal scope, structure and staffing of their leadership council and lay the foundation for a collective impact approach. Email Shannon@forumfyi.org for more info.

4. FORUM FOR YOUTH INVESTMENT E-NEWSLETTERS

The Forum for Youth Investment produces several electronic newsletters to help leaders improve the odds for children and youth. Whether you are working to achieve collective impact through community collaborations, to improve service quality or to make government polices more efficient and effective, you will find a newsletter that helps you do your work. See samples and sign up for newsletters at www.readyby21.org/news/newsletters.
